

2016 Best Practices Conference on
School Operations, Finance and Business Leadership
Tuesday, November 1, 2016

Addendum

Please note the change and addition to our schedule:

	Concurrent Session A 10:35-11:35	Concurrent Session B 11:45-12:45
Capital	11. Federal Education Grants 101 ~ Caitlin Davis, Internal Auditor, and Matthew Welch, Accountant, NH DOE New Hampshire Department of Education will be providing updates on the fiscal changes of the new Every Student Succeeds Act as well as current education grant management Do's and Don'ts.	Addition to Schedule 20. Special Education Transportation 101 ~ David White, President and Dan Mina, Office of Specialized Transportation Services, CTS This session will present key highlights to the Special Education transportation broker model including aspects related to operations and provider relations, compliance, and how to optimize the transportation experience for Special Education students and their support networks both at home and at school.
Concord	Updated Session 12. Energy Market Basics and Sustainability ~ Charlie Agnew, Business Development & Account Manager, Competitive Energy Services, LLC This session will provide fundamental market intelligence, energy trends, market drivers and the future of renewables in power and heating markets in New England. It will also highlight the key opportunities present for public entities seeking to reduce costs and increase utilization of renewables.	16. Demystifying Employer Contribution Rates ~ Jack Dianis, Director of Finance, and Marty Karlon, Public Information Officer, NH Retirement System NHRS will explain the background behind how employer contribution rates are developed and the long-term impact that demographics and local employment hiring trends have on employer contributions.